PURPOSE

GUIDELINES FOR ERT Responders/Events

In the event of an emergency, designated employees report to the area of the arrest and assume or delegate the following functions: (Recommendations Only)

FIRST RESPONDERS:

Activate Code Blue button or call 9-5555 / 911 (Nebraska Medicine Bellevue call 5555). State type of emergency and location. Provide immediate care and obtain emergency equipment. (Place patient on board and Defibrillator / AED pads once available.)

GENERAL INFORMATION

LEADER:

- Direct, monitor, and manage the efforts of the interventions.
- Utilize AHA algorithms and/or System Protocols.

Manage team personnel

Delegate /confirm roles / Assign Tasks

Dismiss/hold personnel

Role filled by Provider, ACLS/PALS RN, or designee

Lead Nurse/Relief Charge Nurse in Response Area

- Assist and/or delegate with recording in electronic health record.
- Manage crowd control
- Assist with patient placement
- Delegate Recorder.

Primary Nurse Caring for the Patient

- Provide brief report to team leader
- Continue care, administer meds, document in EMR
- Notify attending physician.

Airway (as needed):

- Open and maintain airway
- Assist with ventilation
- Inserts airway adjuncts as appropriate

Role filled by Respiratory Therapist, Anesthesia provider, or designee

AED/Monitor/Defibrillator (as needed):

- Operates the AED/Monitor/Defibrillator
- Attach monitor, assess rhythm
- Prepare defibrillator/defibrillate.
- Obtain supplies from cart.

Role filled by ACLS/PALS provider, or designee

IV/IO Medications (as needed):

- Initiates IV/IO access
- Administers medications

Role may be filled by ACLS/PALS provider, or designee

Notify patient's family and/or attend to needs.

Recorder:
Records in EMR or Downtime Form and keeps times of interventions and medications
Calls out when next intervention is due

This role may be filled by primary care nurse, lead nurse, or designee. An ACLS/PALS recorder is preferred for Code Blue.

Compressor (as needed):

Assesses the patient and initiates chest compressions as needed

Alternates every 2 minutes or sooner if fatigued
Role filled by BLS provider or designee

Pharmacist (as available) can assist in medication preparation.

Personnel in the Response Area:

Assist roommate from room if applicable.

Obtain supplies as needed

Clear hallways if transfer is imminent

Other Responders (as needed):

Security Officer: assist with crowd control and transport.

Diagnostic Care Techs/Phlebotomy: BLS responder, EKG/Labs

Nurse Resource Coordinator: ACLS/PALS responder, assist with patient Placement, and other coordination.

Pastoral Care: provide support and updates to the family

All responders assist with recommendations